

Prior registration and written approval from the NRC is required before tutor training commences. Although there is no fee for this training and examination, there are also no expenses of any nature claimable whilst commencing the training and examinations.

Applicants should note that to attain the status of referee tutor at any level requires the applicant to:

- a) Be deemed suitable to take such a responsible position in the British refereeing structure by the NRC
- b) Satisfactorily observe a referee education module being delivered at the appropriate level
- c) After successfully completing “B”, to successfully assist the delivery of a referee education module at the appropriate level while being observed and coached by an assigned tutor
- d) After successfully completing “C”, to successfully lead a referee examination at the sought level under assessment of an NRC appointed assessor
- e) Must deliver under supervision two mat assessments and lead two mat assessments at the applicable level to the satisfaction of the lead tutor assessor, lead assessors must be pre-approved by the NRC

Notes: It may be possible at the discretion of the NRC to move directly to stage “C” or even “D” if there are sufficient transferrable skills already in place. Lead assessors for education and mat assessments must be appointed by the NRC in writing (email sufficient).

To be completed by the assessor and submitted to the NRC secretary once all observations have been satisfactorily completed.
